

Programme

Pathways towards a low carbon city

White Stinkwood Networking Marquee, Climate Change Response Expo, 89-101

Bram Fischer Road, Durban

13:15 – 19:00, 5 December 2011

Chair: Professor Roland Schulze, University of KwaZulu-Natal

13:15 – 13:45	Arrival and Registration
13:45 – 14:05	Keynote Address	Mrs Naledi Pandor, Minister of Science and Technology
14:05 – 14:25	International initiatives on low carbon cities	Prof Jim Longhurst, University of the West of England
14:25 – 14:45	Cities GHG emissions, inventorying and comparisons	Dr Shobhakar Dhakal, Global Carbon Project
14:45 – 15:05	Sustainable urban infrastructure to achieve a low carbon city	Prof Anu Ramaswami, University of Colorado Denver
15:05 – 15:20	Discussion
15:20 -15:35	Climate change initiatives in the city of Durban	Dr Sean O'Donoghue, eThekweni Municipality
15:35 – 15:50	Towards a Low Carbon City: focus on Durban	Prof Roseanne Diab, ASSAf
15:50 – 16:00	Discussion
16:00 – 16:20	BREAK
16:20 – 16:40	Opportunities for greening the buildings and industries	Dr Francis Yamba, University of Zambia
16:40 – 17:00	Low carbon planning in cities	Prof Dave Dewar, University of Cape Town
17:00 – 17:10	Discussion
17:10 – 18:00	Roundtable discussion: Should developing cities strive to be low carbon? FACILITATOR: Prof Roseanne Diab	Prof Anu Ramaswami Dr Francis Yamba Prof Jim Longhurst Dr Shobhakar Dhakal Dr Ancha Srinivasan, Asian Development Bank
18:00 – 18:10	Final Remarks and closure
18:10 – 19:00	Light refreshments

The workshop is funded by science & technology

Department:
Science and Technology
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

National Research Foundation